

Letter to the Universe

renew:

Have you drifted away from the goals or visions you've been dreaming of? Don't wait for a new year to work towards what's calling you. You can renew your ambitions, dreams or relationships at any time. This month, vow to look at life with a new energy and a new passion. Renew your commitment to your ultimate vision!

Prompt:

Do you feel like you've lost your commitment to your vision or goals? It's never too late to begin again. You don't need to wait for a new year to start. You don't need to wait for permission or for some grand sign. You can just start today. Vow to take one step today to get you back on track for what's calling you or what would fulfill you and then do the same thing tomorrow and the day after that. What are ways you can renew your passion or your drive?

Dear Universe,

I know I can start again at any time to renew my commitment to what's calling me. Today is the day that I renew my focus and take charge! I know that with my renewed energy, anything is possible! Today, I will...

With Gratitude,
